Joseph Robinette Biden Jr. is an American politician who is the 46th President of the United States. A member of the Democratic Party, Biden served as the 47th vice president during the Obama administration from 2009 to 2017. He represented Delaware in the U.S. Senate from 1973 to 2009.

Biden was born in Scranton, Pennsylvania, and lived there for ten years before moving with his family to Delaware. He became an attorney in 1969 and was elected to the New Castle County Council in 1970. Biden was first elected to the Senate in 1972, and became the sixth-youngest senator in U.S. history. He was re-elected to the Senate six times, and was the fourth-most senior senator at the time of his resignation to assume the vice presidency. During his long Senate career, Biden was chairman of the Judiciary Committee.

As vice president, Biden oversaw the implementation of the Obama administration's policies, particularly in regard to foreign policy. He also represented the administration in diplomatic engagements, including the 2015 Paris Agreement on climate change. In 2020, Biden became the Democratic Party's presumptive nominee for president in the 2020 United States presidential election. He won the election and was inaugurated on January 20, 2021."
